

Three distinguished teachers honored

A mathematician, a musician, and a geographer were recognized as Cal Poly's distinguished teachers for 1986-87 at the Spring Commencement ceremony.

Honored were Drs. Boyd W. Johnson of the Mathematics Department; Craig H. Russell, Music Department; and Calvin H. Wilvert, Social Sciences Department. Each received a certificate and a $1000 stipend from funds provided by alumni of the university.

Selection of the teaching awards recipients is made by a committee of the Academic Senate, which acts on nominations from students, faculty, and other members of the campus community.

The campus community's choices for the awards are based on in-depth interviews and classroom visits.

The newly recognized distinguished teachers join a group of 71 present and former faculty members who have been honored since the university's Distinguished Teacher Awards program began in 1963.

State honors Cirone for efforts in safety

The supervisor of nurses for the Health Center was among 79 state employees who were honored for outstanding efforts in safety.

Joan Cirone was recognized during the seventh annual Governor's Employee Safety Awards Ceremony held at the Capitol in Sacramento. Her contributions of time and effort for her fellow employees and students beyond the requirements of her position were specifically noted in the award citation.

Mentioned were her leadership in safety training; assistance in the development of an infectious waste disposal program for the Health Center; and involvement in training programs on alcohol and drug abuse, wellness issues, and how to deal with sexual assaults.

Cirone, who has worked on campus since 1971, holds degrees in nursing from Cuesta College and California State College, Bakersfield, and graduate degrees from both Cal Poly and the University of San Francisco.

Don McMillan dies; Noted '17 Alum, MC

Don McMillan, a 1917 Mechanics alum, who for many years served as master of ceremonies for the annual Old Timers Breakfast during Cal Poly Homecoming activities, died June 16 in Templeton.

The 89-year-old McMillan, a charter member of the President's Round Table, was known as The Sage of Shandon because of his wealth of knowledge about North County ranch life.

His wife of 66 years, Alta, survives him.

Hobberlin retirement

After 19 years of service at Cal Poly Jerri Hobberlin, Payroll Services, will be retiring on July 10. A coffee in her honor will be held on July 10 from 2-4 pm in UU 220. Come wish her a fond farewell.

Adaptive equipment, services available

Employees with disabilities may request adaptive equipment or special services that will assist them in the performance of their duties. Any faculty or staff member with a verifiable impairment is eligible.

Last year, Cal Poly employees received services and equipment totaling more than $9800. Orthopedic chairs, a large print screen computer and hardwiring worksite, and a TTY Phone Hook-up were among the assistive devices that the Chancellor's Office approved in accordance to the systemwide guidelines for expending Assistive Device Program Funds.

Items funded on other CSU campuses included student assistants, lab assistants, and reader assistants.

Requests will be considered only for full-time permanent employees, and verification of disability must be provided. Only items costing more than $100 will be considered for submission to the Chancellor's Office.

Requests for auxiliary aids, such as notetakers and assistants must be submitted to the Chancellor's Office by Aug. 3. Equipment requests are due Sept. 17.

Employees with disabilities should contact Smiley Wilkins or Angela Hamilton, ext. 2062, for more information and guidelines regarding assistive device requests.

Sandwich Plant open

Foundation Food Service will keep the Sandwich Plant open for business during Summer Quarter. The facility features custom-made sandwiches, and a covered patio is open from 7 am-2 pm., Monday through Friday.

Central coast artist featured in exhibition

Color and shape will provide the focus for this year's first summer exhibition which began on Wednesday (June 24) in the UU Galerie.

"Ancient Images" is a one-woman exhibition by Central Coast artist Mary Meng Wade.

A cum laude graduate in art from Pomona College, and a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Wade was honored as the winner of the Hanna Tempest Scholarship in Art.

Discussing her latest collection, Wade said, "By allowing color to create the form, I began to discover that there were archetypal images that continually reappeared in my paintings.

"Basic forms such as the circle, the oval, and the hexagon began to arrange themselves into organic clusters, floating in and out of light planes of color."

In commemoration of this exhibition, a full-color, limited-edition poster has been produced, featuring one of Wade's paintings from "Ancient Images" titled "The Gathering."

The posters will be numbered and signed by Wade and sold at the Galerie, Village Art in Arroyo Grande, and Graham's Art Store in San Luis Obispo, as well as other locations on the Central Coast.

The Galerie is open Monday through Wednesday, 10 am to 5 pm; Thursday, 10 am to 8 pm; Friday, 10 am to 4 pm; and weekends, noon to 4 pm.

Recreational sports leisure classes set

The Rec Sports Office will offer a variety of fitness and leisure classes during Summer Quarter.

Classes are taught by qualified instructors on weekdays and are held on campus. The classes are between four and eight weeks long and cost about $18.

Registration begins the first week of the quarter, and classes start the second or third week of school. All members of the Cal Poly community are encouraged to participate.

Two classes offered on Tuesday and Thursday are: Weight Training from noon to 1 pm and 5-6 pm; and Swim: Coached Workout from noon-1 pm and 4-6 pm. Both of these classes begin July 7.

Other classes will include Aerobics, Massage, Country Western Dance, Sign Language, and Clogging.

For information on starting dates, times, locations and prices check the Summer Quarter brochure or call the Rec Sports Office, ext. 1366. To register, stop by UU 118 (Games Area).

Position Vacancies

Vacant staff positions at Cal Poly and the Cal Poly Foundation are announced in this column and are posted outside the respective offices. Contact those offices State: Adm. 110, 805-546-2236 — Foundation: mobile unit near the Fire Department (805-546-1121) for applications and additional position details. Both Cal Poly and the Foundation are subject to all laws governing affirmative action and equal employment opportunity. Cal Poly hires only individuals lawfully authorized to work in the United States. All eligible and interested persons are encouraged to apply.

State

CLOSING DATE: 7-8-87

Clerical Assistant II-A, $1332-$1571/month. Temporary help through 6-30-88; strong possibility of continuation. Placement Center.

Candidates for positions on the faculty of the university are presently being sought, according to Jan Pieper, director of personnel and employee relations. Those interested in learning more about the positions are invited to contact the appropriate dean or department head. Salaries for faculty commensurate with qualifications and experience (and time base where applicable), unless otherwise stated. This university is subject to all laws governing Affirmative Action and equal employment opportunity including but not limited to Executive Order 11246 and Title IX of the Education Amendments Act and the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. Cal Poly hires only individuals lawfully authorized to work in the United States. All eligible and interested persons are encouraged to apply.

CLOSING DATE: 7-1-87 or until filled

Assistant Men's Basketball Coach (full-time), Athletics. Academic year appointment, starting September 1987. Duties include working with all facets of the Men's Basketball Program (Division II) as directed by the Head Basketball Coach and teaching in the Physical Education and Recreation Administration Department (.43 coaching/.57 teaching). Bachelor's degree in physical education or related field and successful coaching and teaching experience at the college level required; Master's degree preferred. Preference given to applicants who can teach racquet sports, weight training, and/or basketball conditioning.

CLOSING DATE: 7-2-87

Lecturers (part-time), Construction Management. Positions available during 1987-88 academic year. Duties include teaching in area of construction methods and techniques and construction business practices. Master's in construction management or related field preferred; bachelor's degree in CM or related field and minimum five years experience in construction management required.

CPR schedule

The Cal Poly Report will be published every other week during Summer Quarter. The next issue will be July 9. Additional summer issues will be published on: July 23, Aug. 6, and Aug. 20, (The deadline is a week prior to the publication date). The first issue of the Fall Quarter will be Monday, Sept. 14.